Margate Then and Now Photography

“Margate Then... and Now” will be a display in the Channel Heritage Centre’. The central part will consist of a pictorial timeline of Margate from 1866 to 2016 plus some maps and aerial photographs, and historic photos of Margate people from the CHC’s collections. The display area to the right will be given over to “The Fridge Door” which will be a place where people can pin their own photos, representing the “People of Margate”

Rules for “The Fridge Door”

1. Photos must be of residents of Margate or owners/employees of a Margate business. They must include at least one named person. Sorry, no landscapes, auroras etc. unless as a background to a portrait.
 2. Photos must be taken in Margate and should include an identifiable Margate feature. Examples may include the Margate Train, any business or sign, a church or school, playground, marina, jetty, Perrin’s ridge, the mosaic... anything, really! Shameless plugs of your business will be permitted, especially if you submit an interesting photo of you or your employees doing what you do.
 3. Humour or quirkiness is encouraged but anything offensive will be removed.
 4. By placing a photo of yourself on the Fridge Door or submitting it by email in digital form you automatically give the Channel Heritage Centre and the 150 Years of Margate committee permission to use it and your name in the exhibition itself, promotion of the same and in any publication that may be produced afterwards. Anyone under the age of 18 must have the written permission of a parent or guardian. No payments or prizes are offered.
 5. If your photo includes people other than yourself you must get their written permission to post it and their agreement to the conditions as per rule 4. A form will be available for this purpose.
 6. Photos may be submitted as 150 x 100mm (6” x 4”) prints and literally pinned to the “Door”, or emailed as a jpg file to secretary@channelheritagecentre.org.au. The name and contact phone number or email address of the photographer must be provided, plus the names of any other persons depicted and the place taken and date of the photo. For hard copy prints this may be written on the back. Extra information such as your link with the place, its history, an anecdote etc. is welcome and encouraged.
 7. All prints and digital files submitted become the property of the Channel Heritage Centre www.channelheritagecentre.org
