

Music for 150 Anniversary of Margate.

| | | |
|--|--|---------------------------|
| June 25th | Moonshine aWhiskers and the Rugged Pony Barn Dance the Brookfield Shed 7pm $5 ring Julia 62672996 | |
| June 26th | Buskers Bash Family Fun Day The Brookfield Shed from 9.30am ring Terry Abbott 0432 181 292 | |
| June 29th | East Meets West Multi-Cultural Night The Brookfield Shed 6pm $30 meal and show | |
| June 30th | Oliver Gathercole CWA Fashions through the Eras. Margate Community Hall | Gold Coin donation |
| July 1st | Oliver Gathercole Southside Community Singers The Brookfield Shed 3pm Gold Coin Donation | |
| July 1st | Frank Povah and Christ Cruise Tins on Tables The Brookfield Shed 7pm | |
| July 2nd $25 All included | L.J. Hooker Variety Night The Brookfield Shed 7pm The Brello Family. Michael Hansson Madge Lowe | |

July 2nd
Anne Blythe
Nic Osborne
Lagoon Hill Zydeco
Teresa Drozd
Piano Relay Margate Train Starting at 11am

July 3rd
Hot String Band
Channel Heritage Centre 10am to noon

July 3rd
Fiona Hutchison
Channel Heritage Centre 12 to 4.

| OUR PERFORMERS | |
|------------------------------|---|
| Allan Badalassi | (piano) received his degree in music and teaching from the Conservatorium of Music in Tasmania in 2006. His compositions have been performed in Tasmanian venues and on ABC classic FM and in 2005 two string quartet pieces, 'Pascal Time' and 'Stages of Mediation', were performed in London. Allan's compositions are of ambient/classical nature. His ideas come through nature and he uses these in the compositions to give the music that added feeling of being in the open. His influences are composer such as, Beethoven, Mozart, Chopin and Satie. These composers inspire him to create music as well as how to bring power to a composition. Multi-Cultural Night Brookfield Shed 29th June |
| Brett Gogoll | Mostly Folk Radio Announcer 96.1hobartfm and MC Braggers Breakfast The Brookfield Shed 2nd July 9am |
| Fiona Hutchison | Fiona is a multi-talented entertainer who sings, twists balloons, and doesn't mind an acting part or two especially if she can wear her silly outfits to make people smile. Channel Heritage Centre noon to 4pm 3rd July |
| Frank Povah And Chris Cruise | Chris and Frank have been friends and musical collaborators for 50 years. Multi-instrumentalists, they have a vast repertoire ranging from traditional blues to Australiana to hillbilly tunes and pop songs of the 19th century. Frank was recorded for the archive of the Australian National Library in the 1980s and in 2013, and he and Chris were recorded for the archive over almost four days in 2015. Their performances are seasoned with anecdotes about the people they have met on their life journeys, and the people who made the music they love to perform. A critic once described a concert by the duo as "a brilliant musical evening combined with a lesson in social history you didn't know you were having". Tins on Tables Brookfield Shed July 1st 6.30 |

| | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| Hot String Band | Hobart Old Time String Band. The biggest Hillbilly band this side of anywhere. Channel Heritage Centre 9.30 to midday 3 rd July |
| Lagoon Hill Zydeco | Lagoon Hill Zydeco is a fun and lively dance band strongly influenced by the distinct musical culture of Louisiana and the pet project of the dynamic Margate accordionist Dave Elliston. The Brookfield Shed, L.J. Hooker Variety night Saturday 2 nd July |
| Lynn Griffiths | (flute, harp, harmonium) is holding a degree in classical music and is teaching piano and flute in Hobart. She has been performing at local and mainland events for many years with Ethereal. They have produced several CD's that were featured on Tasmanian arts- and music websites and the Amplified showcase. Lynne has been working together with Roman for many years now, presenting shows like, 'Overtone Ornaments' and 'Musikarousel' at arts centers and festivals. Multi-cultural Night the Brookfield Shed Wednesday 29 th June |
| Madge Lowe | Well known local pianist Madge Lowe will be making a come back Madge has played at the local dances, schools and multitude of functions. She also had her own concert party putting on shows for many years entertaining the community. The Brookfield Shed L.J. Variety Night Saturday 2 nd July |
| Magician Roy | Roy lived in Margate for many years entertaining the children as happy hoppy. His magic will keep you spell bound. Family Fun Day The Brookfield Shed June 26 th Sunday |
| Moonshine Whiskers Rugged Pony | Hobart based trio featuring multi-instrumentalists playing not-so-well known numbers and some strange twists on the well known! Loads of fun: Barn Dance The Brookfield Shed Saturday 25 th June |
| Nic Osborne | Nic Osborn born and bred in Margate plays the didge, and guitar at the same time. He has his own CD and will be staggered by his performance. L.J. Hooker Variety Night The Brookfield Shed 2 nd July |
| Oliver Gathercole | Much loved Oliver has played piano for community events and choirs for many years. Oliver will be contributing a lot at the festival. He will be accompanying the models at the CWA Through the Eras Fashion Parade and also the Southside Community Singers. CWA Fashion Parade 30 th June Margate Hall 7pm Sing-a-long Friday 1 st July The Brookfield Shed 3pm Lagoon Hill Zydeco Variety Night 2 nd July 9pm |
| Roger McNiece OAM | The Tasmanian Numismatic Society led by ABC coins and medals talk back personality will be conducting a Valuation and assessment day for Coins, Medals, Badges and all types of Paper Money. Gold Coin donation to the Heritage Centre appreciated Channel Heritage Centre Sunday 3 rd July |
| Roman Astra | (Sitar, Esraj, Guitar and Vocals) was born in Vienna and learned to play piano, guitar and later trained to sing. His interest in ancient civilizations took him to China, Tibet, Nepal and India, where he lived to study the Sitar. He later also picked up the Indian violin. Roman has been part of Tasmania's Music and Performance scene since 1988, when he co-founded 'The Horizon Circus'. His team also organized 'The 1994 World Music Show' in Hobart. With his numerous ensembles he has performed at Tasmanian and |

| | |
|------------------|---|
| | mainland festivals. He likes to mix and match genres and styles and encourages his fellow musicians to create a personal musical language. His intriguing music can be listened to and downloaded from most digital servers like, i-Tunes. Spotify, Napster or Amazon. Multi-cultural night The Brookfield Shed 29th June |
| Santhanam Gopala | (Mrudhangam) was born into a family where music was the main curriculum. He started his training in traditional South Indian percussion at the age of 4 and started performing when he turned 9. Santhanam has been trained to accompany the main artist with rhythms and has achieved a level where he understands complex rhythmic calculations and create new rhythmic patterns. Santhanam believes that Music is like an ocean. The more you sail the deeper it goes. It is a never ending process and he says, he is still learning Multi-Cultural Night the Brookfield Shed 29th June |
| Teresa Drozd | Teresa is a much accomplished piano teacher/composer. Her works are inspired by nature, particularly the sea and its moods. Teresa is a member of the Madame Butterflies Relay for LifeTeam and will be having a relay of piano players as a fund raiser for the team Margate Train Saturday 2nd July 10am to 3pm |
| Terry Abbott | Terry Abbott Long time musician mostly drumming in dance bands but also enjoys a session playing keyboard. His passion has now turned to the fun loving ukulele, with percussion Buskers Bash at The Brookfield Shed, Family Fun Day 26th June |
| The Brello's | The Brello family have been diagnosed with infectious entertainment syndrome. Their children were born crying in the key of "C" while the parents were tapping a three quarter beat. as a result Emcee comparing and entertainment has been an ongoing malady (or is that melody?) L.J. Hooker Variety Night The Brookfield Shed 2nd July |

